Dear Parent:

Welcome to the 4-H Family! As Washington County 4-H reorganizes its clubs for the new school year, please check on the reverse side how your child would like to participate in 4-H this year. There are three ways most youth in Washington County participate in the 4-H program – School Enrichment programs conducted with the cooperation of teachers and 4-H, School 4-H club meetings held at participating schools and 4-H Project clubs and activities.

Parents and 4-H leaders working together can do so much for the girls and boys than either can do alone. We hope you share in 4-H by encouraging your child to participate to the fullest. Please check the things you are willing to do to provide learning opportunities for the 4-H members.

Code of Conduct

As a member of 4-H, I understand that I am to act appropriately in speech and manner when I am representing my school, county, area/region, and/or state in 4-H activities and events. By this, I know that I am to behave with respect to all adults and to use sportsmanship in all 4-H activities and events. Failure to do so, may result in revoking my 4-H privileges and invitation to represent 4-H.
